

January 16, 2007

Written by Gordon Zweig (gzweig@costar.com)

---

Opinion Research Center Inks 10-Year Lease in Bethesda

Non-Profit Signs for 33,624 SF in Bethesda Towers Complex

The National Opinion Research Center (NORC) leased 33,624 square feet on the seventh and eighth floors of Bethesda Towers West, at 4350 East-West Highway in downtown Bethesda, MD.

The 11-story, 184,342-square-foot office building is in Washington, DC's Bethesda/Chevy Chase submarket. It is part of the three-building, 532,000-square-foot Bethesda Towers cluster, close to Wisconsin Ave.

Affiliated with the University of Chicago, NORC's projects include survey and data collection and analysis for a range of clients including education institutions, government agencies and private corporations.

It has offices at the University of Chicago and in Chicago's downtown Loop and Washington, DC. Its Bethesda deal is for 10 years.

Vince Coviello and Jeb Boland handled the deal in-house for the landlord, Moore & Associates Inc. Bruce McNair, Bill Morris, Will Travis and Josh Hartman of Grubb & Ellis Co. represented the tenant.